Acknowledgments

The Tourism Research Centre, Dublin Institute of Technology (DIT) and the European Association of Leisure and Tourism Education (ATLAS), would like to extend their most sincere appreciation to all chairpersons, keynote speakers and seminar presenter for setting the quality and tone for the ATLAS 10th Anniversary International Conference: Tourism, Innovation and Regional Development (3rd to 5th October, 2001) and for taking time to share their knowledge, experience and expertise in their own specialist fields. We are most grateful to the School of Hospitality Management and Tourism, Faculty of Tourism and Food for encouraging, facilitating and supporting this conference. In particular the delegates were most impressed and enlightened by the students' of the School.

We would like to express our appreciation to the following government departments: Department of Tourism, Sport and Recreation and Department of Arts, Heritage, Gaeltacht and the Islands for their support and encouragement. We would like to thank both delegates and participants for their conscientious attendance and contributions at the Conference, without which, this ATLAS 10th Anniversary International Conference would not have been possible at all. Our sincere thanks must also be extended Irish Ferries, Bord Fáilte – Irish Tourist Board, The Marine Institute, Guinness Storehouse and Gilbeys Ireland. Our special appreciation is expressed to members of ATLAS, especially to Greg Richards and Leontine Onderwater, for their encouragement, support and hard work. We can say that without their efforts the event would not have been such a great success.
