FOREWORD

In response to constant enquiries we have decided to put this Downpatrick Cookery Book at your service. This is no less than the Sixth edition and through previous publications as many as 5,200 copies have found their way into homes all over the world. People have purchased this book for private use and discovering its genuine worth they have bought copies to send to their friends everywhere.

The recipes are all tested; the ingredients are available in the appropriate shops; and the wide variety comes to the rescue of the hostess on every occasion. There can be no doubt but that the practical nature of the book is its popular commendation.

Signed—
