HOTEL RUSSELL, DUBLIN

Today's Special

Robert Emmet

*'He lived for his love,
For his country he died.'*

Robert Emmet, who was born in St Stephen's Green, Dublin in 1778, is remembered for his gallant though unsuccessful rebellion, and for his ill-fated love of Sarah Curran.

When his attack on Dublin Castle failed Emmet remained in the city trying to rally his forces and, perhaps hoping to see his beloved Sarah Curran.

Arrested and found guilty of treason, Emmet was executed in 1803.

His speech from the dock still remains the only epitaph of this most romantic of Irish patriots.
