I.D.Y.M. "JOBS for YOUTH" CONFERENCE

The Irish Democratic Youth Movement has recently launched a nationwide campaign to highlight the present massive level of unemployment among young people and to mobilise public support behind our economic proposals for full employment.

As part of this campaign the I.D.Y.M. will hold a major Conference on the JOBS FOR YOUTH theme in Buswells Hotel, Molesworth Street, Dublin 2, on Saturday 8th. April. Invited speakers to this important Conference include Michael Mullen, General Secretary, I.T.G.W.U.; Mattie Merrigan, Secretary, A.T.G.W.U.; Paddy Duffy, General Secretary, Bricklayers Union; Eamonn Gilmore, Resources Protection Campaign and Tomas Mac Giolla and Eamonn Smullen from Sinn Fein The Workers' Party. The speakers will cover such subjects as the need for industrialisation; the great potential of our natural resources; and the role of State Companies. The Conference will also include a section on "Songs and Music of the Working-class" with a number of Folk singers invited to participate; and the Sinn Fein The Workers' Party Film on Resources called "Going, Going, Gone".

The I.D.Y.M. campaign and the topics under discussion at this Conference will be of interest to many members of Sinn Fein The Workers' Party. Therefore we are asking all Cumainn and Clubs throughout the country who wish to be represented at this important Conference on Saturday 8th. April (10.45a.m. to 5.00p.m.) should complete the attached form and return it to the organisers as soon as possible. And if your members require accomodation please give us plenty of notice !
