Seeking spirituality in Malta’s prehistoric past: reflections on visits to the megalithic temples

Maria Elena Zammit

This presentation will focus on Heritage Malta’s experience with visitors who seek to connect spiritually to the megalithic temples. Different types of these visitors will be identified and their specific requirements discussed. How is Heritage Malta catering for these needs while ensuring that all of its visitors enjoy these priceless treasures? This will be considered within the context of any visitor’s impacts on archaeological sites and how these can be managed and mitigated in order to fulfil the agency’s international obligation to safeguard the outstanding universal values of the sites.
