IRISH TIMES

Ideal home cooking

PAUL AND JEANNE RANKIN are renowned for their vibrant mix of modern food styles and their regular features for Ideal Home magazine skilfully marry brilliant ideas from their Michelin-starred restaurant, Roscoff, with recipes that really work at home.

Ideal Home Cooking is a compilation of delicious and healthy recipes from their hugely popular 'Creative Cookery' series in Ideal Home magazine. It includes over 120 innovative ideas and recipes for modern home cooking, and is accompanied by the best of the food photography featured in the magazine.

Combining flavours from around the world, the recipes reflect the Rankins' truly global syle of cooking with exciting and imaginative combinations such as spicy prawn cakes and a leek and ginger sauce, stuffed loin of pork with basil, and a mocca date pudding with a butterscotch sauce. With quick and easy recipes for day-to-day cooking as well as inspirational ideas and serving suggestions for entertaining, Ideal Home Cooking encompasses a wealth of contemporary food styles for all occasions.

PAUL AND JEANNE RANKIN trained under Albert Roux at Le Gavroche in London and have been proprietors of the restaurant Roscoff in Belfast since 1989. They also present the BBC series Gourmet Ireland and are regular guests on a variety of TV food and lifestyle shows. Having travelled the world nurturing their passion for food, they can turn their hand to whatever country's flavours capture their imagination. Their results are always healthy and accessible, innovative yet simple.
