Camino de Santiago Papers Published in the International Journal of Religious Tourism and Pilgrimage 2013-2021

From the very first Issue of the International Journal of Religious Tourism and Pilgrimage we have received a steady flow of papers focusing on the Camino de Santiago. With a couple of Special Issues derived from our 2018 conference in Santiago, the volume of these papers increased (see Issues 7(2) & 7(4)). Realising that we had a solid number of new Camino papers ready to publish and noting that 2021 was a special Jacobean or Holy Year (Xacobeo 2021) we decided to assemble this Special Issue to focus exclusively on this unique pilgrimage route.

During the editorial preparations for this issue, as we read the paper by Xose M. Santos (see The Way of St. James in Religious Tourism Research), we realised that we have already published 27 papers with the Camino as a main focal theme, with an additional 11 papers in this Special Issue. In order to celebrate these Camino papers we have assembled the following bibliography. We hope you enjoy reading the work of our authors over the past nine years, and look forward to many more interesting and stimulating papers about this fascinating medieval pilgrimage route.
